L

Known as one of Montréal's most dynamic museums, Pointe-à-Callière is, in fact, a museum complex made up of five buildings, bringing together cutting-edge technology and treasures of the past. Located at the birthplace of Montréal, this spectacular museum, designated a national historic site, is also a world-class exhibition venue with unique spaces that can host private events in a setting that is rich in history.

Renowned for its archaeological sites and remains, the Museum offers an impressive, inspiring, and unusual backdrop, with 11 areas and spaces that lend themselves well to all manner of events and receptions: launches, inaugurations, cocktail parties, happy hours, business meetings, various types of assemblies, colloquia, gourmet meals, anniversaries, celebrations, and fireworks evenings. Its various multifunctional rooms are among the best equipped in Montréal.

The Museum is located just a few minutes from the downtown core, in historic Old Montréal, and it offers exceptional views of the Old Port, the St. Lawrence River, and the city of Montréal.
